

The 2019 George Edwards Memorial Event

Gressenhall Farm & Workhouse Museum,

Saturday 29th June 2.00 to 4.00 p.m.

“Rural Life: Past Problems and Future Challenges”

Stephen Pope, head of the museum’s volunteer research team, will speak on

George Edwards: *Workhouse Inmate to Workhouse Guardian,

and

Peter Medhurst, former UNITE Agricultural Regional Officer will ask

“Is there a future for Farm Workers and Small Farmers?”

The meeting will be chaired by Barry Salmon.

Entrance fee (after 12.00 noon) £2.50.

Meeting arranged by the Methodist Church East Anglia District with the support of the UNITE trades union.