

Sunday February 28th 2021: The Second Sunday in Lent

For use at 10.30 am or at another time.

This is our 50th Worship at Home sheet!

Hymn StF 323 H&P 223

I will sing the wondrous story / of the Christ who died for me, how he left the realms of glory / for the cross on Calvary:
Yes, I'll sing the wondrous story / of the Christ who died for me, sing it with his saints in glory / gathered by the crystal sea.

I was lost; but Jesus found me / found the sheep that went astray, raised me up, and gently led me / back into the narrow way.

He will keep me till the river / rolls its waters at my feet;
then he'll bear me safely over / where the loved ones I shall meet:

Francis Harold Rowley (1854 – 1952)

Prayer

As always, thank God for his goodness and say sorry for your own weakness in response.

Gospel Reading set for today: Mark 8 v 31 – 38

To think about

If a non-Christian friend asked you to explain this reading, what would you say?

Hymn StF 662

Have you heard God's voice; has your heart been stirred? Are you still prepared to follow?
Have you made a choice to remain and serve / though the way be rough and narrow?
*Will you walk the path that will cost you much and embrace the pain and sorrow?
Will you trust in One who entrusts to you the disciples of tomorrow?*

Will you use your voice; will you not sit down / when the multitudes are silent?
Will you make a choice to stand your ground / when the crowds are turning violent?
*We will walk the path that will cost us much and embrace the pain and sorrow.
We will trust in One who entrusts to us the disciples of tomorrow.*

Message from a Circuit friend

In early February one of our heroes died, Sir Captain Tom Moore. He made something simple of walking 100 laps of his garden before his 100th birthday into a national fixation, raising over 33 million for the NHS. What an achievement! But it got me thinking as we enter Lent and begin the journey towards Easter, when the greatest of all heroes this world has ever seen gave the ultimate sacrifice, his life for our salvation and everlasting life.

Like many heroes Jesus had a humble beginning born in a stable surrounded by animals. However, his destiny was realised by the visitation of the shepherds and wise men, and the gifts bestowed upon him. His destiny which was signalled throughout his life, gave him gifts fit for a King and also for a burial. But what do you have to do to be a hero? Save someone's life? Be an inspiration for others? Be there for others when they are hurting and forgotten? Jesus, I am sure you will agree fits all these criteria and more, he is invincible, our saviour in times of trouble and strife, our Lord. He is our path to our Father, as he said 'no one comes to the father, except through me' (John 14:6). He suffered for us, no greater suffering has ever been experienced. He was cast out alone to die with unimaginable pain, cut off from his father. We know this through his immortal words 'why have you forsaken me?' (Matthew 27:46). Can you imagine how that felt, yet he knew his destiny and still fulfilled the prophecies. Such bravery, such love for us, such forgiveness for our mortal sin. It is this hero that takes away my pain, he gives me hope when all hope is gone, he eases suffering and grief, he listens when no one else will, he answers prayer, he forgives and lets us grow to become children of God. Just as Sir Captain Tom Moore had a number one record with Michael Ball, 'you'll never walk alone' and with the sacrifice of our ultimate hero Jesus, we never will walk alone!

Hymn StF 557 H&P 698

Let him to whom we now belong / his sovereign right assert,
and take up every thankful song / and every loving heart.

He justly claims us for his own / who bought us with a price;
the Christian lives to Christ alone / to Christ alone he dies.

Jesus, thine own at least receive / fulfil our hearts' desire, and let us to thy glory live / and in thy cause expire.

Our souls and bodies we resign / we joy we render thee
our all, no longer ours, but thine / to all eternity.

Charles Wesley (1707 – 1788)

May the blessing of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with us, and all those we love, this day and always, Amen.
